

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL MEMBERS PORTFOLIO DOCUMENT

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL ALLIANCE (DNA) PARTY

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBER PROFILES

TERM PERIOD:2025-2030

10TH FEB 2026

1. FOREWARD

1.1 MESSAGE FROM THE PARTY LEADER

I am pleased to present this portfolio of the National Executive Committee of the Democratic National Alliance. This document reflects not only the individuals entrusted with the stewardship of our party, but also the collective strength, diversity and experience that define our leadership.

The National Executive Committee serves as the strategic engine of our movement. Its members bring together a wealth of professional expertise, grassroots connection and unwavering commitment to democratic values. Together, they carry the responsibility of shaping policy direction, strengthening party structures, and ensuring that our vision remains responsive to the aspirations of the people.

As we navigate an evolving political and socio-economic landscape, effective leadership and accountability remain at the core of our mission. This team embodies our commitment to integrity, inclusivity and service. Their varied backgrounds and shared purpose position the party to continue building a credible issue-driven platform for national transformation.

I am confident that the leadership profiled in this document will guide the party with diligence, innovation and unity of purpose. We remain steadfast in our resolve to deepen democracy, empower communities and contribute meaningfully to the progress of our nation.

I invite members, supporters, and stakeholders to engage with this portfolio as a reflection of who we are and the leadership that we offer.

HON. GODFREY KANOTI
PARTY LEADER
DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL ALLIANCE

2. ABOUT THE PARTY

2.1 VISION

To build an established, prosperous, industrialised and modern nation where all citizens enjoy social, economic and democratic rights and live with dignity.

2.2 MISSION

To build a social democratic state and society where all Kenyans have a better life, feel at home as individuals and communities, and enjoy the benefits of independence and devolution.

2.3 CORE VALUES (GUIDING PRINCIPLES)

- The party is guided by the following values:
- Dignity and respect
- Determination, creativity and hard work
- Democratic and participatory governance
- Rule of law and constitutionalism
- Equality, equity and inclusivity
- Transparency and openness
- Gender equity and non-discrimination
- Devolution of power and resources
- Environmental sustainability

2.3 STRATEGIC PRIORITIES

The constitution outlines key priorities that shape the party's strategy:-

2.3.1 Democratic Governance

- Build a truly democratic, inclusive and accountable government
- Strengthen citizen participation in governance

2.3.2 National Unity & Social Justice

- Promote national cohesion and a shared identity
- Ensure justice, equality and protection from discrimination

2.3.4. Economic Transformation

- Create a competitive, innovative economy
- Promote fair wages and dignified livelihoods

2.3.5. Governance Reform & Anti-Corruption

- Transform state institutions for efficiency and transparency
- Uphold zero tolerance for corruption

2.3.6. Inclusion & Empowerment

- Guarantee participation of youth, women, PWDs and minorities
- Uphold the two-thirds gender principle

2.3.7. Constitutionalism & Rights

- Defend the Constitution and protect political, social and economic rights

2.4. IDEOLOGICAL ANCHOR

DNA is founded on National Conservatism, emphasising national unity, cultural preservation, collective identity and loyalty to the nation.

3.0 GOVERNANCE ROLE OF THE NEC

The NEC serves as the strategic brain and governance authority that steers the party, safeguards its values, and ensures effective leadership and accountability.

3.1 Strategic Direction

The NEC provides overall leadership by:

- Translating party vision and policies into actionable strategies
- Setting priorities and annual work plans
- Guiding long-term political and organisational direction

3.2 Policy Oversight

- Reviews and approves policy positions
- Ensures alignment with party ideology and manifesto
- Oversees policy development processes

3.3 Institutional Oversight

The NEC ensures the party operates effectively by:

- Supervising the Secretariat
- Monitoring performance of party organs and structures
- Ensuring compliance with the party constitution and regulations

3.4 Decision-Making Authority

Acts as the party's principal decision body on:

- Major political positions and alliances
- Organisational reforms
- Resource allocation and budgeting

3.5 Accountability & Governance Standards

- Upholds ethical leadership and discipline
- Ensures transparency and accountability
- Addresses disputes or governance issues

3.6 Electoral & Political Coordination

- Provides oversight on election preparedness
- Approves campaign strategies
- Guides candidate support frameworks

4.0 STRUCTURE OF THE NEC

POSITION	NAME	ID	CONTACT
Party Leader	Hon Godfrey Kanoti	21029844	0722320033
Deputy Party Leader - Strategy	Ngao Matano Chengo	8620010	0720261837
Deputy Party Leader - Policy	Benjamin Kebaso	21441705	0722924588
Deputy Party Leader - Political Affairs	To be filled
Deputy Party Leader - Governance & Internal Affairs	Towett Chepkoech Lorreen	28155389	0715554008
National Chairperson	Walter Mong'are	14555481	0722720822
National Vice- Chair - Operations	Daisy Chelangat	21369600	0724522820
National Vice - Chair - Programs	Paul Irene Njeri	22250142	0700930350
National Vice Chair - Internal Affairs	Rachel Mwakazi	10811542	+4745514186
National Vice Chair- Political Affairs	Bright Shitemi	27916625	0710256888
Secretary General	Dr. Barrack Muluka, PhD	0300770	0722520427
Deputy Secretary General	Madam Naomi Cidi	4434907	0722521500
National Organizing Secretary	Beatrice Nakiyai Kipish	24452279	0727088751
National Deputy OS-Operations	Peter Elim	24685231	0713594148
National Deputy OS - Programs and Internal Affairs	To be filled
National Deputy OS - Recruitment and External Affairs	To be filled
National Deputy OS - Strategy	Gaye Agesa	14596184	0722888431
National Treasurer	Cleophus Oyaro	0415010	0726943862
National Deputy Treasurer	Kupata Matano	9881127	0707039750

National Chair Women Congress	Lydia Gimode	14596184	0722828913
National Chair Youth Congress	Rebecca Moraa Jillo	35955381	0799773973
National Chair PWD - Congress	Mr. Evans Kasena	134487550	0721776919
Secretary Legal & Constitutional Affairs	Joshua Makori	11135547	+14164330845
Secretary for International Affairs	Eric Orina	10020699	0721397167
Secretary Public Policy & Economic Affairs	Starlings Muchiri Muciimi	22143522	0722332729
Secretary for Publicity and Information	To be filled
Secretary Special Interest Groups	To be filled
Secretary Parliamentary Affairs Whip Senate	Mwawira Maasai	8535082	0722881289
Secretary Parliamentary Affairs Whip National Assembly	Grayson Katsoleh	28735138	0724726644
Secretary Devolved Government	To be filled
Secretary Innovation Research, Science and Technology	To be filled
Secretary Arts, Creative Industry and Culture	To be filled
Secretary Special Programmes and Social Welfare	Lisper Murugi Njagi	27900955	0717301035
Secretary for Labour and Human Resource Development	Eugene Ochieng Otieno	34998078	0705652937
Secretary for Education	To be filled
Secretary for Agriculture, Health and Food Security	To be filled
Secretary for National Security	Fedinand Masha Kenga	10690509	0702569521
Secretary for Humanitarian and Disaster Management Affairs	To be filled
Secretary Political Affairs and Campaigns	James Opiyo Okumu	25092200	0714642896
Executive Director (Ex-Officio)	Lornah Andisi Komba	24293532	0718506666

5. INDIVIDUAL MEMBER PROFILE and roles as per article 14 of the Party Constitution

Hon Godfrey Kanoti

Position: Party Leader

Profile Summary

Hon. Godfrey Kanoti is the Party Leader of the Democratic National Alliance, He serves as the overall head and symbol of unity for the party, providing strategic political leadership and guiding national cohesion among members.

His responsibilities include; leading election campaigns, negotiating coalitions and alliances, issuing directives for programme and policy implementation, presiding over all major party meetings-NDC, NGC, attending or summoning any party organ, conferring commendations, managing party finances as a signatory to bank accounts, and performing any other functions necessary to advance the party's objectives.

Hon. Kanoti brings to the NEC a strong blend of leadership, strategic vision, and governance experience. He is great at political organisation, policy direction, and grassroots mobilisation, enabling him to guide the party's growth and national outreach. He plays a central role in strengthening the party's institutional capacity and positioning it as a credible platform for inclusive development and political reform in Kenya.

MATANO CHENGO

Position: Deputy Party Leader-Strategy

Profile Summary

Matano Chengo serves as Deputy Party Leader in charge of Strategy, where he oversees the development, execution and monitoring of the party's strategic initiatives to achieve its mission and vision.

Through this role, he leads long-term strategy formulation, including collaborations and alliances, analyzes political trends, identifies risks, drive innovation and change, conduct research to inform strategic decisions, sets and adjusts priorities, facilitate capacity building within party structures and report on implementation of the party's strategic plan.

Mr. Chengo brings strong expertise in planning, organisational development, and political analysis, helping align programs and priorities with the party's vision. Within the leadership team, he plays a central role in shaping policy direction, coordinating strategic initiatives, and ensuring effective implementation of party objectives.

BENJAMIN KEBASO

Position: Deputy Party Leader-Policy

Profile Summary

Benjamin Kebaso serves as Deputy Party Leader in charge of Policy. He assists the Party Leader in developing, reviewing, and refining party policies, ensuring they align with the party's ideology, vision and public expectations.

He oversees drafting of manifestos, policy documents, and position papers, coordinates research for evidence-based decisions, advises on policy adjustments, communicates policies internally and externally, integrates policies into strategic plans, and monitors implementation across all party organs. His role strengthens the party's capacity to develop credible solutions and articulate clear policy alternatives.

Benjamin brings strong analytical and leadership capabilities to the role of Deputy Party Leader (Policy). His strengths include policy research, strategic analysis, and the ability to translate national development priorities into actionable party programmes. In leadership, he is recognised for collaborative engagement, effective communication, and the capacity to work with experts, stakeholders, and party structures to ensure that the party's policy agenda remains relevant, coherent, and responsive to the needs of citizens.

LORREN TOWETT

Position: Deputy Party Leader-Governance and Internal Affairs

Profile Summary

Lorren Towett serves as Deputy Party Leader in charge of Governance and Internal Affairs, she oversees the party's day-to-day operations, ensuring compliance with rules and procedures. She manages programmes, projects, and budgets in coordination with the Secretariat, supervises financial planning and procurement, ensures logistical efficiency, oversees human resources and administrative workflows, serves as liaison between the Party Leader and Secretariat, monitors project timelines and expenditures, and addresses internal disputes to maintain organisational discipline.

Towett brings strong organisational and leadership capabilities to the role of Deputy Party Leader for Governance and Internal Affairs within the Party. She demonstrates skills in institutional governance, internal coordination, and administrative oversight, helping to ensure that party structures operate efficiently.

Her strengths include promoting accountability, strengthening internal systems, facilitating conflict resolution, and supporting cohesion among party organs. Through her leadership, she contributes to building disciplined, transparent, and well-coordinated party governance that supports the overall growth and stability of the party.

HON. WALTER MONG'ARE

Position: National Chairperson

Profile Summary

Walter Mong'are serves as the National Chairperson of the Party. He chairs meetings of the NEC, ensures order and cohesion within all party organs, and champions unity among the party leadership.

He coordinates and liaises with other political entities, collects political intelligence, advise on grassroots strategies to popularize the party, execute duties assigned by the Party Leader, and perform all functions customary to the office of National Chairperson.

Mr. Mong'are brings creativity, public engagement, and communication strength to his role as a member of the National Executive Committee (NEC). With extensive experience in public life and media, he possesses strong skills in messaging, civic engagement, and connecting with diverse audiences.

His background in leadership and advocacy enables him to contribute to party visibility, strategic communication, and mobilisation, while his ability to understand public sentiment helps the party remain responsive to citizens' concerns and aspirations.

DAISY CHELAGAT

Position: National Chairperson-Operations

Profile Summary

Daisy Chelagat assists the National Chairperson in all matters related to logistics and operational management of party activities. She oversees coordination and administration of Counties, Women, Youth, and PWD Congresses, develop initiatives to maintain popular interest in the party, and perform any other duties delegated by the National Chairperson. This role ensures smooth coordination of party programmes, operational efficiency, and effective implementation of NEC decisions.

She brings strong organisational and coordination skills to this role. She demonstrates experience in managing party operations, overseeing the implementation of party programmes, and ensuring effective coordination between national and grassroots structures. Her strengths include strategic planning, administrative leadership, and operational oversight, enabling the party to execute its activities efficiently while strengthening internal systems, accountability, and institutional effectiveness.

IRENE-PAUL NJERI

Position: National Vice Chairperson- Programs

Irene Paul Njeri assists the National Chairperson in matters relating to party policies and programs, as well as coordination and liaison with other political parties. She oversees and coordinates standing, ad hoc, and specialized national committees, and carries out specific assignments delegated by the National Chairperson.

She is great at coordinating national programmes, supporting grassroots activities, and ensuring that party projects are effectively executed across different regions. Through effective planning, stakeholder engagement, and team coordination, she contributes to strengthening the party's programme delivery and impact.

RACHAEL MWAKAZI

Position: National Vice-Chair Person Internal Affairs

Profile Summary

Rachael assists in coordinating local strategic reviews and organising regional strategic groups to ensure party strategies consider local concerns. She maintains liaison with branches and think-tanks to provide feedback for coherent national planning, streamline grassroots strategic activities for timely regional responses, and perform other duties delegated by the National Chairperson.

Rachael brings strong organisational and administrative skills to the role. She demonstrates experience in strengthening internal party coordination, supporting governance structures, and ensuring adherence to the party constitution and internal procedures.

Her strengths include conflict resolution, communication across party organs, and promoting unity and discipline within the party. Through effective oversight and collaboration with party leadership, she helps maintain efficient internal operations and fosters cohesion within the party's national and grassroots structures.

DR. BARRACK MULUKA, PhD

Position: Secretary General (SG)

Summary Profile

Barrack is responsible for managing the National Secretariat and serves as the principal custodian of all party records from grassroots to national level. As the official spokesperson and accounting officer, the Secretary-General is a signatory to party bank accounts, ensures meetings are convened as required, keeps and distributes official records, issues correspondence, prepares annual reports, safeguards party documents and registers, ensures statutory compliance, implements decisions of party organs, and liaises with the Office of the Registrar of Political Parties on behalf of the party.

Barrack brings extensive experience in political communication, policy articulation, and organisational leadership to the role of Secretary General of the Party. He is widely recognised for his strong strategic communication skills, intellectual depth, and deep understanding of governance and public policy.

His strengths include coordinating party operations, managing institutional structures, guiding policy messaging, and ensuring effective implementation of party decisions. With his background in media, academia, and politics, he provides disciplined administrative leadership and clear ideological direction that strengthens party cohesion, visibility, and strategic positioning in national politics.

NAOMI CIDI

Position: Deputy Secretary General (DSG)

Profile Summary

As the Deputy Secretary-General, Naomi assists the Secretary-General in staff development, motivation, and discipline, and supports the implementation of party programmes, projects, and grassroots management. In the absence of the Secretary-General, the Deputy Secretary-General assumes their duties to ensure continuity of leadership and administration.

Naomi Cidi brings significant institutional knowledge and organisational commitment to the Democratic National Alliance (DNA) Party, having been a founding member when it was formerly known as the Umoja Summit Party of Kenya (USP–Kenya).

As Deputy Secretary General of the Party, she demonstrates strong skills in party organisation, administrative coordination, and grassroots mobilisation. Her experience in the party's formative stages equips her with a deep understanding of its structures, vision, and operational processes, enabling her to support the Secretary General in strengthening internal systems, ensuring effective communication within party organs, and advancing the party's strategic growth and institutional stability.

CLEOPHAS OYARO

Position: National Treasurer

Profile Summary

Mr.Oyaro is responsible for managing party finances and supervising financial transactions at all levels.

His role includes receiving and banking funds, maintaining proper accounts, preparing financial statements and audited reports, serving as a bank signatory, overseeing resource mobilisation, ensuring prudent financial management, and guaranteeing compliance with statutory requirements, including submission of audited accounts to relevant authorities in accordance with Kenyan law.

Mr Oyaro brings strengths in financial management, accountability, and organisational governance.

He demonstrates skills in overseeing the party's financial resources, budgeting, and ensuring transparent and responsible management of funds in line with regulatory requirements.

KUPATA MATANO

Position: Deputy National Treasurer

Profile Summary

As the National Deputy Treasurer, Kupata assists the National Treasurer in managing accounts, budgeting, and financial planning. His role supports audit processes by coordinating internal and external audits, provides necessary information to appointed auditors, assists in resource mobilisation planning and execution, maintains contact with party supporters, and undertakes specific assignments delegated by the National Treasurer to ensure sound financial management.

Kupata brings strong skills in financial management, resource mobilisation, and organisational accountability. He demonstrates experience in supporting the oversight of party finances, budgeting, and transparent reporting, ensuring that resources are managed efficiently and in compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. His expertise also includes assisting in strategic financial planning, coordinating fundraising initiatives, and contributing to the overall financial sustainability and operational effectiveness of the party.

BEATRICE NAKIYIAI KIPISH

Position: National Organising Secretary

Profile Summary

The National Organizing Secretary spearheads the party's organisational and mobilisation activities nationwide under the supervision of the National Executive Council. The role oversees membership recruitment and registration, expands grassroots presence across all counties in line with constitutional requirements, coordinates party meetings and national events in consultation with senior leadership, manages logistics and public functions, and delegates outreach responsibilities to deputies and regional coordinators to strengthen party structures.

PETER ELIM

Position: Deputy Organising Secretary -Operations

Profile Summary

The Deputy National Organising Secretary-Operations supports the National Organising Secretary in coordinating public meetings, functions, and outreach tours.

He assists in continuous membership recruitment, works closely with the Secretary for International Affairs to strengthen diaspora engagement and relationships, and carries out assignments delegated by the National Organising Secretary to enhance mobilisation and organisational effectiveness.

GAYE AGESA

Position: Deputy Organising Secretary- Strategy

Gaye Agesa serves as Deputy National Organising Secretary — Strategy, working under the direction of the National Organising Secretary to support organisational functions and mobilisation efforts. The role focuses on developing strategic approaches to identify and prepare potential aspirants and candidates for National General Elections and By-Elections, strengthening the party's electoral competitiveness and long-term political growth.

LYDIA GIMODE

Position: National Chairperson Womens Congress

Profile Summary

Lydia Gimode oversees and coordinates the activities of the Women's Congress, ensuring effective organisation and participation. The role advocates for the inclusion of women's issues in party platforms, promotes and mobilises party policies among women across Kenya under the direction of the NEC, and submits periodic performance reports to the National Executive Committee.

Lydia presents strong leadership and advocacy skills in her role as National Chairperson of the Women's Congress of the Party. She brings experience in grassroots mobilisation, women's empowerment, and organisational coordination, enabling her to effectively champion the participation and representation of women within the party and national politics.

Her strengths include mentoring emerging women leaders, promoting gender-responsive policies, and building networks that strengthen the voice and influence of women within the party's structures and decision-making processes.

JILLO MORAA

Position: National Chairperson-Youth Congress

Profile Summary

Jillo Moraa serves as National Chairperson of the Youth Congress, overseeing and coordinating its activities nationwide. The role advocates for the inclusion of youth issues in party platforms, promotes and mobilises party policies among young people across Kenya under the direction of the NEC, . She brings experience in youth advocacy, grassroots mobilisation, and leadership development, enabling her to effectively engage young people in the party's programmes and political processes. Her strengths include mentoring emerging youth leaders, coordinating youth structures across regions, and promoting policies that advance youth empowerment, innovation, and participation in democratic governance. Through strategic engagement and effective communication, she helps strengthen the voice and influence of young people within the party and national politics.

EVANS KASENA

Position: National Chairperson — PWD Congress

Profile Summary

Evans Kasena serves as National Chairperson of the PWD Congress, overseeing and coordinating its activities nationwide. The role represents issues and opportunities affecting the PWD community within the NEC, contributes to party policy formulation, and ensures the inclusion of PWD perspectives in party programmes and decision-making.

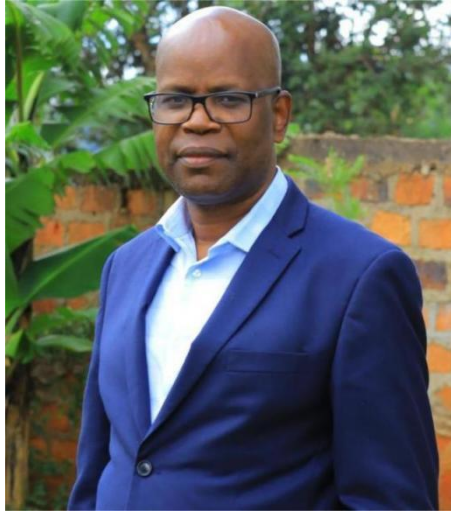

Evans brings strong advocacy, leadership, and community mobilisation skills to this role. He demonstrates experience in championing the rights, inclusion, and empowerment of persons with disabilities within the party and in national discourse.

His strengths include promoting inclusive policies, coordinating PWD structures across the party, and engaging stakeholders to ensure meaningful participation of persons with disabilities in political leadership and decision-making.

Through effective advocacy and organisational leadership, he contributes to advancing equality, accessibility, and representation within the party's structures and programmes.

JOSHUA MAKORI

Position: Secretary — Legal and Constitutional Affairs

Profile Summary

Joshua Makori serves as the principal legal advisor of the Democratic National Alliance, providing guidance on national and international legal matters. He acts as the party's spokesperson on legal issues and international relations, ensuring compliance with laws and regulations while supporting the NEC in policy, constitutional, and governance matters.

Mr. Makori brings combined strengths in legal expertise, constitutional interpretation, and governance advisory. He has experience in analysing legal frameworks, guiding the party on regulatory compliance, and ensuring that its policies and internal processes align with the Constitution of Kenya and the Political Parties Act.

His is skilled at drafting legal and institutional documents, advising leadership on constitutional matters, and supporting the development of sound governance structures that strengthen the party's legal standing, accountability, and commitment to democratic principles.

ERIC ORINA

Position: Secretary — International Affairs

Eric Orina serves as Secretary for International Affairs, representing Kenyans living in the diaspora and coordinating party members abroad to build a resource hub. He establishes communication networks, liaises with foreign organizations, manages matters of foreign policy, and creates mutually beneficial links with international partners, while performing duties directed by the NEC to strengthen the party's global engagement.

STALINGS MUCIIRI

Position: Secretary Public Policy and Economic Affairs

Profile Summary

Stalings Muciiri serves as Secretary for Public Policy and Economic Affairs, leading the development and review of party policies on priority national issues. Starlings analyses the merits and demerits of policy proposals, advises the party leadership, and represents and defends adopted policies in the public domain, while carrying out additional responsibilities assigned by the NEC.

MAASAI MWAWIRA

Position: Secretary Parliamentary Affairs Whip Senate

Profile Summary

Maasai Mwawira serves as Secretary for Parliamentary Affairs Whip Senate, responsible for galvanising support among DNA members of Parliament and other MPs for motions and bills endorsed by the party. The role calls and records proceedings of the Parliamentary Group, and briefs other party organs on the activities and decisions of the parliamentary caucus to ensure alignment with party objectives.

Mwawira brings strong skills in legislative coordination, political strategy, and parliamentary procedure. He demonstrates experience in guiding party positions within the Senate, ensuring party discipline among members, and coordinating legislative priorities in line with the party's policies and constitutional objectives.

His strengths include negotiation, policy advocacy, and effective communication with parliamentary stakeholders, enabling him to strengthen the party's legislative influence and ensure coherent representation of the party's agenda within the Senate.

LISPER MURUGI

Position: Secretary — Special Programmes and Social Welfare

Profile Summary

Lisper Murugi serves as Secretary for Special Programmes and Social Welfare, overseeing the management and strategic planning of the party's special programmes. The role coordinates community empowerment initiatives and promotes the rights and welfare of vulnerable persons, ensuring that the party's social engagement and welfare activities are effective and impactful.

EUGENE OCHIENG

Position: Secretary — Labour and Human Resource Development

Eugene Ochieng serves as Secretary for Labour and Human Resource Development, responsible for developing policies that promote equity in labour relations and align skills with industry needs. He liaises with trade and employer unions and carries out other duties as directed by the National Executive Council, supporting the party's human resource and labour policy agenda.

Eugene brings strengths in labour advocacy, organisational development, and human capital management. He demonstrates skills in promoting policies that support workers' rights, employment creation, and fair labour practices, while also contributing to the development and coordination of human resource structures within the party.

His experience enables him to support capacity building, talent development, and strategic engagement with labour stakeholders to advance the party's commitment to inclusive economic growth and workforce empowerment.

FERDINAND MASHA

Position: Secretary — National Security

Profile Summary

Ferdinand Masha serves as Secretary for National Security, responsible for developing party policy on matters of internal security and public order. The role ensures that the party's positions and proposals on security issues are coherent, strategic, and aligned with national interests.

Masha brings valuable skills in security coordination, organisational discipline, and risk management. He is great at planning and implementing security protocols for party activities, safeguarding party leadership and members during meetings and events, and coordinating with relevant authorities to ensure compliance with national security regulations.

His experience also supports crisis management, conflict prevention, and maintaining order within party structures, contributing to a safe and well-organised environment that enables the party to conduct its operations effectively.

JAMES OKUMU

Position: Secretary Political Affairs

Profile Summary

James Okumu serves as Secretary for Political Affairs of the Democratic National Alliance Party and plays a key role in advancing the party's political strategy as outlined in the party constitution. His responsibilities include coordinating political programmes, strengthening party structures across regions, guiding political mobilisation, and advising the leadership on political trends and alliances. He also helps ensure that the party's political activities and engagements are aligned with its constitutional objectives, vision, and democratic principles, thereby contributing to the party's growth, cohesion, and effective participation in national politics.

James has great abilities in political strategy, grassroots mobilisation, and organisational coordination, enabling him to strengthen party structures and expand political outreach. His experience includes analysing political dynamics, guiding campaign strategies, and fostering collaboration among party members and stakeholders. Through effective communication, negotiation, and leadership, he supports the implementation of the party's constitutional mandate on political affairs while contributing to the party's visibility, unity, and competitive positioning in Kenya's political landscape.

GRAYSON KATSOLEH

Position: Secretary Parliamentary Affairs Whip National Assembly

Grayson serves as Secretary for Parliamentary Affairs and Whip for the National Assembly within the Democratic National Alliance Party. He brings strong skills in legislative strategy, parliamentary procedure, and political coordination. His role involves ensuring party cohesion within parliamentary debates, guiding members on legislative priorities, and liaising between the party leadership and parliamentary representatives. With experience in policy analysis, negotiation, and consensus-building, he supports effective legislative planning, aligns parliamentary actions with the party's constitution and objectives, and strengthens the party's influence and presence in the National Assembly.

LORNAH ANDISI

Position: Executive Director (EX-OFFICIO MEMBER)

Profile Summary

Lorna Serves as the Executive Director of the Party. She is responsible for overseeing the party's administrative and operational functions. She coordinates the implementation of the party's strategic plans, supporting the National Executive Committee (NEC), and ensuring that party programmes and activities are effectively executed across national and grassroots structures.

She also facilitates communication between party leadership, members, and stakeholders, while strengthening organisational systems, improving operational efficiency, and ensuring that the party's vision, policies, and objectives are implemented in a structured and accountable manner.

WAY FORWARD

As we consolidate our efforts in strengthening the Party, the National Executive Committee (NEC) remains committed to enhancing organisational cohesion, policy coherence, and grassroots engagement. Our focus moving forward will be on:

1. Institutional Strengthening: Ensuring that all party organs operate efficiently, transparently, and in accordance with our constitution, while promoting accountability and discipline across all levels.
2. Strategic Growth and Outreach: Expanding our presence across counties, deepening engagement with communities, and fostering youth and women participation in political leadership.
3. Policy and Governance Excellence: Developing clear, evidence-based policies that reflect our vision and core values, while ensuring that governance practices within the party are exemplary and democratic.
4. Capacity Building: Investing in the development of NEC members and party officials to enhance leadership skills, operational efficiency, and political strategy implementation.
5. Collaborative Leadership: Strengthening teamwork and coordination among NEC members, deputies, and secretaries to ensure seamless execution of party programmes and initiatives.

Together, as a united NEC, we will continue to build a party that is disciplined, responsive, and transformative; one that effectively represents the aspirations of Kenyans and positions DNA as a credible force in national politics.

Forward Together, Stronger Always.

9. Annexes

NEC organogram

2025/2026 OFFICE FINANCES
MONTH	ITEM	AMOUNT
March	NDC Planning	16,250
April & May	NDC	1,531,642
July	Office launch & expenses	470,620
August	Kikao/DNA event & expenses	439,890
September	Office & Salaries	253,490
October	Office Expenses	218,500
November	Office Expenses & Events	445,560
December	Office Expenses & Events	449,060
	TOTAL	3,825,012

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL ALLIANCE MONTHLY/ANNUAL EXPENDITURE ESTIMATES

Budget Line	Amount	Frequency in months	Total
SECRETARIAT (Rent,Water, WIFI,Electricity,staff remunerations,gardening, Office supplies)	300,000	12	3,600,000
Media/Publicity/Social Media	200,000	5	1,000,000
Party hosting of delegates/county members activities	125,000	12	1,500,000
Printing of merchandises	50,000	12	600,000
NEC Retreat	500,000	1	500,000
Women/youth Congress Conference	300,000	4	1,200,000
Total			8,400,000						